

The Strategic Partnership (SP) "Towards a Worldwide Influencing Network" is a Lobby and Advocacy programme with the Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The programme enables global and local influencing work on three thematic areas: 1) Right to Food; 2) Greater Responsibility in Finance for Development; 3) Conflict and Fragility. The ambition of the SP is to achieve policy changes by governments and the private sector to the benefit of groups facing poverty and injustice, and to strengthen civil society's capacity to demand for such change. The SP is implemented over a period of 5 years by an Alliance consisting of Oxfam Novib and SOMO.

Project: ARIJ - Finance for Development

ARIJ contribution to the project will consist of building thematic alliances, strengthening their thematic and influencing capacity, engaging in civic education, raising public awareness, advocating for better policy and regulations, and the organization will undertake research and campaigns. The partners have solid foundation in governance work on local level in OPT and has previously worked on public finance accountability by monitoring local authorities in budget execution, promoted social accountability on the local level, and have been actively working on civil education. In this aspect partner NGOs brings different, yet compatible set of expertise that will ensure meaningful citizens' engagement while ensuring lasting institutional changes in financing for development in OPT. During the course of the action the partner will particularly focus on increasing transparency and promoting progressive policies with Ministry of Agriculture and work on promoting fair policies in service delivery.

Actor: The Applied Research Institute Jeru

The Applied Research Institute Jerusalem - ARIJ implements a number of initiatives in the fields of social accountability citizens participation and budget monitoring with the local authorities across OPT. ARIJ governance team works systematically with local civil societies to improve the accountability of key local authorities and help local state institutions in becoming more responsive to community needs. In relation to community participation ARIJ good governance team works to provide and develop the capacities of local and national authorities with the required support to create more sustainable communities by applying an integrated and participatory approach to local policy making. In addition, ARIJ also works with civil society organizations on integrating good governance practices in the work of local CBOs and NGOs
