

The Strategic Partnership (SP) "Towards a Worldwide Influencing Network" is a Lobby and Advocacy programme with the Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The programme enables global and local influencing work on three thematic areas: 1) Right to Food; 2) Greater Responsibility in Finance for Development; 3) Conflict and Fragility. The ambition of the SP is to achieve policy changes by governments and the private sector to the benefit of groups facing poverty and injustice, and to strengthen civil society's capacity to demand for such change. The SP is implemented over a period of 5 years by an Alliance consisting of Oxfam Novib and SOMO.

Project: Yesh Din - Conflict & Fragility

Yesh Din- Volunteers for Human Rights will contribute to targeted outcome of the project: international community holds the PA and Israel accountable and advocates for meaningful inclusion, and protection, of women in gender sensitive peace and security processes. The focus of the intervention will on carrying out awareness raising, training, and documentation on the implications of settler violence and land related offences on Palestinian communities in the West Bank (particularly Area C) and East Jerusalem with a focus on women. Yesh Din will provide direct support to Palestinian civilians at risk and address the lack of law enforcement through its tried and tested methodology, combining field, research and advocacy work, while focusing on gender-specific aspects of settler violence. In addition, the organization will produce and distribute information packages and data sheets on the impact of gender specific impact of settler violence on Palestinian communities to expose the links between the failure of law enforcement and dispossession/displacement of Palestinians. These efforts will be combined with strong local and international advocacy at EU and local level.

Actor: Yesh Din Volunteers for Human Right

Yesh Din (YD) is a rather new human rights organisation founded in 2005 seeking to combine the best features of different models of human rights activism in Israel (grassroots activism, professionalism, documentation, linking individual cases with structural policy changes) and thus overcome the movement's weaknesses. YD has no office. It relies on the commitment of its 33 volunteers, but has three paid staff members: a liaison officer for the hotline, a volunteer co-ordinator and an activities coordinator.

Yesh Din main aim is policy change. It has three main projects: Law enforcement on Settler Violence; IDF Criminal Accountability (or Investigation of Israeli Security Forces Personnel); and Settlement Policy Judicial Advocacy.
