

Project: Promoting the leadership role of W&Y

WSC is a leading Women Rights organization in Jerusalem. WSC will work on building the capacities of twenty young men and women on documentation skills, Gender, human rights and public participation, debating and negotiation skills, and advocacy skills, those twenty youth will document cases of Human Rights violations against women and girls in Jerusalem in different areas, social, economic and political. The documentation will be gathered into one study analysis that will highlight the affects of occupation on women in Jerusalem, this study will be disseminated in a general conference in Ramallah that will gather stakeholders from different backgrounds and areas with focus on Human Rights organisations, and finally WSC will produce a short video to highlight the violations they document. WSC will contribute to enhance the participation of youth in public life in Jerusalem in a conflict and fragile situation and will also support the leadership of young men and women in Jerusalem

Actor: Women's Studies Center

The Women's Studies Centre (WSC) is a human rights organization working on the promotion of gender equality and women's rights as human right in the Palestinian Society. The WSC was founded by a group of women who were empowered to address the overlooked issue of women's vulnerability in a society that is largely dominated by patriarchal restrictions of liberties, freedoms and relations. Since its establishment in 1989, the WSC has worked in various programs to empower women and build female capacities to stand up for their rights.

The WSC mission is to work towards developing, fostering and disseminating a progressive feminist discourse based on social justice and equality values, with the aim of empowering women to access and benefit from all societal resources available. The WSC also contribute to developing and mobilizing community and youth leadership that endeavour to create social movements.

WSC's work focus in three key areas; women's empowerment, combating violence against women and promoting a feminist discourse.
